

Wiring of the rear multipole connector to mute the receiver when transmitting. A small 12VDC relay with 4 changeover contacts was used and installed right on the metal shell of the „Siemens“ plug. It repeatedly proved successful when used with my SE-415 transceiver in my Land Rover.

